

Creative Forces Day

You are invited to attend one of our Creative Forces Day:

Chelmsford: 16th Nov | Cambridge: 21st Nov | Peterborough: 23rd Nov

This event is offered in collaboration with Make Happen and Take Your Place. It allows Service children to engage with higher education by taking part in a day of fun and interactive activities hosted at our campus. Students will have the opportunity to learn what university can offer, the careers available beyond higher education-level study, and to explore their 'Service child' identity in the process. It's also an opportunity to build the capacity of schools to understand and support their Service children.

Your young person will experience:

- Age-appropriate seminar-style course taster session.
- Benefits of university.
- The chance to ask current university students questions about student life.
- Explore support available to Service children through their educational journey.
- A tour of our campus.
- Never Such Innocence Service child identity workshop.

Lunch

Lunch will be provided so please ensure your young person's school/college has the most up to date information, including dietary requirements and any allergies.

Privacy policy

We collect data at some of our activities and events. Read our Privacy Policy to find out how we use, store, share and protect this data

Photo Consent

Please note that photographs may be taken throughout Creative Forces Day. These will be used by the University for marketing and publicity in our publications, on our website and in social media or in any third-party publication. We will be providing lanyards for students that would not like to be in any photos. There will be visible signs where photography is taking place.
